6.1 General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- 6.1.1 buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- 6.1.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;
- 6.1.3 be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by clause 6.2 or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission (“the Commission”). In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

6.2 Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

- 6.2.1 A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- 6.2.2 A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011¹.

¹ See clause 29.1 (Interpretation)

6.2.6 A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.

6.3 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The CIO and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by clause 6.2.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

6.3.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the CIO and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the CIO.

6.3.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

6.3.3 The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the CIO to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

6.3.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the CIO.

6.3.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.

6.3.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

6.3.7 A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

- 7.2 absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the CIO if it is wound up

If the CIO is wound up, the members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

If the annual general meeting does not fill the vacancy created by his or her resignation, he or she shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-elected unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the re-election of the charity trustee has been put to a meeting and lost. - 27.1 As provided by sections 224 to 227 of the Charities Act 2011 this constitution can only be amended by a resolution passed by a 75% majority of those members of the CIO voting at a general meeting of the CIO called in accordance with clause 15 (General meetings and the annual general meeting).
- 27.2 Any alteration of clause 3 (Objects), clause 14 (Disposal of Designated Land), clause 28 (Voluntary winding up or dissolution), this clause, or of any provision where the alteration would provide authorisation for any benefit to be obtained by charity trustees or members of the CIO or persons connected with them, requires the prior written consent of the Commission.
- 27.3 If the charity trustees or the members of the CIO propose to alter clause 14 (Disposal of Designated Land), the members of the CIO must not pass any resolution to alter that clause unless the charity trustees have before the decision of the members (made under clause 19 (Decisions of the members)):

So, not only must the CIO seek the Charity Commission's consent to any change, it must give public notice of at least one month prior to any decision. Such notice gives residents an opportunity to make representations and to raise concerns with the Charity Commission.

28.2 Subject to the payment of all the CIO's debts:

28.2.1 Any resolution for the winding up of the CIO, or for the dissolution of the CIO without winding up, may contain a provision directing how any remaining assets of the CIO shall be applied.

29. Interpretation

29.1 Commentary on sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011:

Section 185 sets 4 conditions (A - D) all of which must be satisfied before the CIO can pay a charity trustee or a connected person for the provision of a service to the CIO-

Condition A is that the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the service:

- (a) is set out in an agreement in writing between the CIO and the charity trustee or connected person providing the service ("P") and
- (b) does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the provision by P of the services in question

Condition B is that, before entering into that agreement, the other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the CIO for the services to be provided by P to or on behalf of the charity for the amount or maximum amount of remuneration set out in the agreement

Condition C is that, if immediately after the entry into the agreement, there is more than one charity trustee or connected person in respect of whom an agreement within Condition A is in force, the total number of them must constitute a minority of all the charity trustees then in office

Condition D is that trusts of the CIO do not contain any express provision that prohibits P from receiving the payment.

Before entering into an agreement within Condition A the charity trustees must have regard to any guidance given by the Commission concerning the making of such agreements.

Section 186 provides that P (as above) must not act as a charity trustee in relation to any decision or other matter connected with the agreement. If P fails to comply and, at that time, P or a person connected with P has received or is to receive from the CIO any payment under the agreement in question, the Charity Commission has the following powers:

- (a) to order P to:
 - (i) reimburse to the CIO the whole or part of the payment received under the agreement;
 - (ii) to the extent that the payment consists of a benefit in kind, to reimburse to the CIO the whole or part of the monetary value (as determined by the Commission) of the benefit in kind
- and
- (b) to direct that P or (as the case may be) the connected person is not to be paid the whole or part of the payment due under the agreement.

If the Commission makes an order under subsection (a) or (b), P or (as the case may be) the connected person will cease to have any entitlement under the agreement to so much of the payment (or its monetary value) as the order requires P to reimburse to the CIO or (as the case may be) as it directs is not to be paid to P.
